53 Main Street, Norw., HULL.
"In my opinion, no other medicine is so good as 'Fruit-a-lives' for Indigestion and Constipation."
For years, I suffered with these dreaded diseases, trying all kinds of treatments until I was told I was incurable.
One day a friend told me to try "Fruit-a-lives" (or Fruit Liber Tablets). To my surprise, I found this medicine gave immediate relief, and in a short time I was all right again."

RED TAGS SUMMON

CARELESS AUTO DRIVERS

Police Have New Plan to Save Trouble of Watching an Offending Car.

Automobile drivers who leave their cars standing too long while they are away from them or fail to have their lights burning or infringe on the motor vehicle laws in other ways in this city, will now be likely to find a red tag tied to their machine with an invitation to call at police headquarters at once.

This is a plan which has just been adopted by the city officers to notify the infractor of the trouble of waiting around for an hour or two, possibly, to locate the owner of the machine when he returns to it.

One of the little red tags with which the officers are provided is attached to the offending machine and the driver must do the rest or stand the consequences. The tag reads: Police Department, City of Norwich, Conn. No. —. Driver will report to police headquarters at once. On the back of the tag is briefly written the complaint that is recorded against the car.

Miss Case is resigning to accept a position as instructor at the Oklahoma Agricultural college, and will take her new duties at the opening of college in September. With a quota of 10,500, the women of the town have pledged to can 10,500 quarts of fruit and vegetables. The campaign was in charge of Miss Jean Burleson, Jewett City, Mrs. W. B. While the first move of the Government includes only unskilled labor, the Department of Labor contemplates the ultimate inclusion of recruiting and placing of all kinds of labor exclusively through the United States Employment Service.

Big Job for Government.

Government officials in Washington are convinced that the task of putting into effect the new labor program is the biggest job which Washington has undertaken since the time the Selective Service law was put in operation. While the first move of the Government includes only unskilled labor, the Department of Labor contemplates the ultimate inclusion of recruiting and placing of all kinds of labor exclusively through the United States Employment Service.

Stop Labor Selling and Poaching.

The action of the Government was found necessary in order to overcome a serious shortage of unskilled labor and war industries in many localities. The shortage was aggravated by an almost universal practice of labor selling and poaching. While the restrictions against the private employment of labor apply only to common labor at the present time, these restrictions will, as soon as possible be extended to include skilled labor. In the meantime, recruiting and placing of labor for war production will be subject to Federal regulations which are now being prepared.

Protect Employer and Employee.

The Department of Labor has framed its program to protect both the employer and the employee, to conserve the labor supply of the nation, and to cut down unnecessary and expensive labor turn-over. The big idea behind all of this is to increase the production of essential war materials.

While non-essential industries will be drawn upon to supply the necessary labor for war work, the withdrawal will be conducted on an equitable basis in order to protect the individual employer, as much as possible. Under the operating methods adopted, the country has been divided into 12 Federal districts, each with a superintendent of the United States Employment Service. Connecticut is in district No. 2, which has its headquarters at Hartford. Up to the present time, such a proposal has not been made to the commission. It is expected that the commission will soon begin the work of making changes in the interior of the Connecticut district, and that the changes will be the equipment of the buildings.

"Red Beds" of Ford and Knox counties. The results was a small output of copper and lead, and an output of silver for the six months of fully 300,000 ounces.

EAST LYME LETTER

ON PROPERTY EXCHANGE

Sent to State Tuberculosis Commission—Contained No Definite Proposition.

A letter was received Monday by the state tuberculosis commission from First Selectman Beckwith and Judge Bush of East Lyme on the matter of an exchange of properties in the town so as to save the property of the town which the commission recently bought at Crescent Beach for $12,000 from being turned into a seaside sanatorium for the treatment of children suffering from tuberculosis of the bone. The letter did not contain any definite proposition as to the property to be exchanged, nor was it quite clear that the town had control of property which it could exchange.

The revival of the matter has suggested the question as to whether the town authorities of East Lyme, even with the sanction of the voters had power to give property for the purpose of exchange, and that they are limited in powers of purchase to property which is needed for town purposes.

The commission has not departed from its former position to entertain any proposal for an exchange of property, but would accept the town's offer if it would suit the purposes of the commission just as well as the property that has been bought at Crescent Beach. Up to the present time, such a proposal has not been made to the commission. It is expected that the commission will soon begin the work of making changes in the interior of the Crescent Beach property to make it suitable for patients and nurses. One of the important changes will be the equipment of the buildings.
